MEMBERSHIP
The Delta Naturalists Society (DNS) welcomes everyone interested in nature, birdwatching, conservation, environmental issues, and all aspects of natural history.

An annual membership in DNS includes:

• A monthly newsletter with club news and topics of local interest.
• Membership in BC Nature, a province-wide organization of about 50 naturalist clubs.
• BC Nature’s quarterly magazine with regular articles on nature, conservation, the BC Important Bird Areas Program, Wildlife Tree Stewardship Program, and naturalist activities around BC.

“To know nature and to keep it worth knowing” – BC Nature motto

AIMS
• To foster interest in the natural history of the Fraser delta.
• To share and enjoy nature
• To promote environmental awareness and conservation

“Our to preserve by hand and heart” Corporation of Delta

Brochure Revised March 26, 2017
THE DELTA NATURALISTS
SUPPORT...
◊ The enjoyment of observing nature.
◊ The conservation and preservation of wildlife habitat in the Fraser River delta.
◊ The promotion of publicly accessible green space and urban forests.
◊ The promotion of nature education at public events.
◊ A Birds and Biodiversity strategy for Delta
◊ Members’ involvement in the stewardship of local parks and habitat, including construction of nest boxes.
◊ The restriction of cosmetic pesticide use.
◊ Our members’ involvement in monitoring and critiquing local environmental concerns.

FIELD TRIPS
Walks are coordinated by a leader, normally without charge. We hold quarterly “Birds on the Bay” field trips in Boundary Bay Regional Park, and sometimes join with other naturalist clubs in the region.

Delta Naturalists Casual Birders (DNCB) meet weekly to bird somewhere around Boundary Bay or beyond; read about trips and see photos on our blog: dncb.wordpress.com

DNCB Outings regularly include:
• Boundary Bay Regional Park
• Reifel Migratory Bird Sanctuary
• Roberts Bank
• Brunswick Point
• Serpentine Wildlife Management Area
• Deas Island Regional Park
• Point Roberts, WA
• Iona Beach Regional Park, Richmond

The Delta Naturalists Society is an affiliated member of BC Nature

ACTIVITIES
• Field Trips
• Regular displays at community events
• Conservation Committee
• Nestbox construction & stewardship
• Nature consultation on community issues

SPEAKERS
Guest speakers at our monthly meetings cover a wide variety of topics, usually with an illustrated presentation. Examples of recent presentations include:
• Birds of the Coffee Forest
• Haida Gwaii
• Cavity Nesting Bird Ecology
• The Story of Burns Bog
• Thompson River

We welcome everyone to our meetings at no charge. For information, refer to our website, or the Local Events column in the Delta newspapers.
